

ESSENTIAL SOLUTIONS™

DENNIS,

I CAN NOT put into words the "things" that your class has helped me overcome. Not only have you rekindled many of the lessons of being a professional sales person that I have forgotten over the years, but you have helped me overcome "personal issues" in my life that have been holding me "hostage". Your class not only teaches sales lessons, but more valuable life lessons. I trust, by putting into play ways of "re-teaching" my thinking process, I will not only be a better sales person, but a better husband and father.

I can't thank you enough for the wake up call!
I greatly appreciate your efforts and insight.
