

Dennis Parker lead a great seminar on professional sales success. His sessions are very informative and packed with very useful information. The key is that the information is useful. He has been in our shoes and knows our situation. It helps to talk to someone that has been there and experienced our same feelings. I would recommend Dennis' seminars to many people for beneficial outcome.

A. League